THE MILWAUKEE BREWERS

MILWAUKEE, July 16.—The entire force of men employed by the brewers of this city, numbering nearly 8,000, will adopt the system now followed by the brewers and refuse to buy any goods of grocers, furniture men, and other dealers who recently signed the letter in opposition to Sunday theatrical amusements.

A Traveling Art Gallery.

Among the truly great and artistic of the many divisions of W. W. Cole's unparalleled show is the life-like and realistic wax statuary of the presidents and men of mark generally in the art gallery. In this gallery are found all the presidents of the United States from Washington to Arthur, distinguished statesmen of all the world, great warriors in every walk—the renowned of every country, the beloved, the great, the noble, the abhorred assassin, the martyr, the inventor—in short everybody whom the present generation would care to see, as they are and were in life. These groupings will be on exhibition in the main tent of W. W. Cole's great shows, at Janesville on August 15.

The Weather.

REPORTED BY PRENTICE & EVENSON, DRUGGISTS.
The thermometer at 7 a. m. to-day registered 61 degrees above zero, and at 1 p. m. 76 above. The signal service indication for the day were:

Upper Lake Region—Clearing weather, westerly winds, stationary or lower temperature, higher pressure.

DYSPEPSIA OF LONG STANDING.—Don't allow prejudice to prevent a trial of Zerk's for health—that argues want of judgment. A few doses will surprise you. See what Mrs. Forbes, Tilsburg, Ont., says.—Sold by Prentice & Evenson.

A Family of Refugees.

Last Friday evening a family of Russian refugees arrived here from Milwaukee, having been sent by the employment bureau to Mr. Fred Sonneborn, who was requested to aid them. The family is composed of five members, the father, mother, two sons and a daughter. Two of the children have scoured work through Mr. Sonneborn's efforts, but the others are as yet unprovided for. To-day Messrs. Sonneborn and Wyler, will endeavor to rent them a house, and furnish it with necessities. The people are absolutely destitute, and are in urgent need of assistance. Mr. S. C. Cobb, has kindly offered to provide them with a bedstead, and others will doubtless contribute to the charitable work.

A Skillful Preparation.

Composed of roots, barks, and plants that act in harmony, and are a pleasant and effective medicine, constituting Brunner's Blood Purifier, of which highly commendatory reports are being constantly received. Price $1. Sold by Balmer & Stevens and Sherer & Co.

Tobacco Sales.

120 cases, Sundries, 9 to 15 cents.
Total cases, 1,255.

HEADACHE—Particularly, is removed and permanently cured with Zerk's. Try a 10 cent sample. It regulates the Stomach and Liver. Sold by Prentice & Evenson.

The Use of Wealth.

There are thousands of rich men who are not skintails, who have the reputation of being so, because they have never been known to have done any special good with their money. A man who is worth $50,000 can do more to make himself loved and respected by all with whom he comes in contact, by the judicious expenditure of a thousand dollars in charity, than by giving the whole fifty thousand, after he is dead. It seems as though it would be mighty small consolation to a millionaire to leave money to some charitable purpose, after death, and be so confounded dead that he couldn't see the smiles of happiness that his generosity had created.

Suppose a millionaire who has never had a kind word said of him except by flattery hypocrites, who hope to get some of his money, should lay out a beautiful park worth a million dollars, and throw it open free to all with walks, drives, lakes, shade and everything. Don't you suppose, if he took a drive through it himself and saw thousands of people having a good time and all looking their love and respect for him, that his heart would be warmed up and that his day would be lengthened? Wouldn't every look of thanks be worth a thousand dollars to the man who had so much money that it made him run round pleased? Wouldn't he have more pleasure than he would in cutting off coupons with a lawn mower?—Puck's Sun.

Dreams in Verse.

I have done reams of philosophizing, pecking and joking in dreams. I have fancied with rapture that I have solved "the painful riddle of the earth" in an epigram, and then awoke to recollect a miserable platitude, or worse. I was once composing a lyric in a dream, and awoke, with wet eyes and a beating heart, to recall these precious lines:

The Great designed the Lesser Ark,
In his castle of Aukland-Snow,
And you may write it down in chalk,
To set down the anguish
Of a not familiar friend.

I have again made hundreds of jests, including puns, in my dreams, but never one that was not idiotic. Once, indeed, I composed in sleep a child's story in verse, beginning:

Here there is a gleam of reason in unreason, but all the rest was stupid, and that little bit is my dream masterpiece.—Spectator.

If you want to buy a first class riding corn cultivator, call at Gazette Printing Office. They sell cheap.

STABLE BURNED.

CHICAGO, July 17.—A fire occurred at 5 o'clock yesterday morning in the livery stable of Pember & Carter, No. 100 West Milwaukee street, which caused the death of fifty-nine horses and a cow, and entailed a loss of $10,000, which is only partially covered by insurance. The stable, a two and basement brick structure, was 150 x 45 feet. In the basement were the horses and the cow; the first floor was occupied by carriages, harnesses, and wagons. In the second story lived Frank Strunk and his family and a number of boarders, about twenty-five people in all. In the same story were also stored sleighs, wagons, and vehicles of all descriptions.

The building, which was damaged about $1,000, was insured for $5,000. Pember & Carter had no insurance on their horses. Mr. McClurg had some insurance, but how much could not be learned. Mr. Elliott had no insurance. As to the others, it could not be discovered whether or not they were insured. Among the horses burned were a trotter belonging to P. Cash, valued at $500, and one belonging to C. Quinn, worth $200. Strunk's furniture, which was insured for $500, was damaged to some extent. The loss on the fifty-nine horses is estimated at $9,000. It could not be discovered yesterday in what companies the insurances were placed. The total loss by the fire is about $10,000.

Last Thursday, Pember & Carter, who reside at Janesville, Wis., purchased the stable from Frank Strunk, who has had an interest in it since 1873.

TEMPLE OF HONOR.

JANESVILLE, July 15.—A. O. Wright, superintendent of the Temple of Honor convention system, Grand Templar Watrons and Grand Recorder Burnham had a conference in this city, finishing yesterday. The object of the meeting was to plan for putting the convention system into operation in Wisconsin. It was found that Mr. Wright had carefully systematized the work, and was ready to make it effective. The newly-made districts were supplied with deputies, as follows:

Conventions of a successful character have been held in the Madison and Lake Shore districts.

SUICIDE

BARABO, Wis., July 15.—James McCosky snickered in the Town of Sumpter yesterday. He had been bookkeeper in a bank at Ripon, Wis., some years, but overworked and had injured his health. He came to Sank Prairie three months ago. He was found in bed with his throat cut. Two weeks ago he complained of a stroke, and has been complaining since. He was a widower 47 years of age, and leaves six children in comfortable circumstances. The coroner's jury returned a verdict of temporary insanity.

FRANK JAMES.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 16.—Detective Watkins, of St. Louis, passed through tonight by the Pan Handle & Vandalia route to St. Louis with a prisoner who is believed to be none other than Frank James. Watkins denies that this is the case, but passengers on the train and Chief Williams and members of the local police force are convinced it is James, and the man admitted his own identity, saying he had been caught while on a trip East for the purpose of having a picnic with the Ford brothers.

MRS. ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

The Martyred President's Wife Died at Springfield, Ill., Last Evening.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 16.—Mrs. Abraham Lincoln, the wife of the martyred President, was attacked with paralytic symptoms on Saturday evening, and has been gradually sinking ever since. Her attending physician says she cannot last many hours. Since her return from New York City she has been making her home at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Nathan Edwards, and living in a state of exclusive retirement. She rarely left her room, and seldom went out of doors. For several weeks past she has been suffering with boils, which almost covered her person. These, it is thought, caused such a state of nervous irritation as to bring about paralysis from the bursting of a blood vessel upon the brain. Since morning up to this hour (6 p. m.) she has been lying in a comatose state. Secretary Lincoln has telegraphed from Washington that he will leave for Springfield to-night, and will arrive here on Tuesday morning. To her death a blessed relief from many sufferings and a broken heart.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 16.—Mrs. Lincoln died at 8:15 this evening. She remained unconscious until her death, and passed to the other world peacefully and without a struggle. Anxious relatives and friends watched at the bedside expecting her death momentarily, longingly attending her wants, but in her unconscious state she could give them no sign of recognition. Her death will cause universal mourning, for, as the wife of President Lincoln, she was held in a sort of veneration by the people.

PENSION APPROPRIATIONS.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—The Pension Appropriation Bill as it passed the Senate makes no change in the amount appropriated by the House, which remains at $100,000,000. No amendments, except those recommended by the Senate Committee on Appropriations, were adopted, outside of more verbal changes. The amendments authorize the Commissioner of Pensions to appoint surgeons to make such examination of pensioners and applicants as he shall require, and to organize boards of surgeons to consist of three members each at such points in each state as he shall deem necessary to conduct such examinations, subject to the revision of a special board of three surgeons to be appointed when the exigencies of the service require it. The fee for such examinations shall be $2 for each member of the board. An amendment was also adopted prohibiting the payment of double pensions.

A FATAL DUEL

DURKEVILLE, Va., July 16.—The last chapter in the rencounter which took place between Joseph Addison and David Garland, in Lauenburg, Prussia, was the death of Addison, which took place this morning, surrounded by his mother, brother—F. G. Addison—brother-in-law, and other friends. He died this morning at 6 o'clock. These relatives, accompanied by Dr. Mercer, of Baltimore, and nurses, arrived here Saturday, and proceeded to the bedside of the stricken relative. Very shortly after the rencounter the local physicians probed the wound, and found the ball in the skin about an inch from the hip. It entered the right groin and passed through the body. The wounded man remained conscious up to within a very short time before he expired. He expressed perfect resignation at his approaching end. On Friday Garland, the other party to the rencounter, was arrested, and bailed to-day. An inquest was held, which resulted in the verdict of Garland. The body of the young man, accompanied by his mother and other friends reached here this evening en route for the home of the deceased in Baltimore. The affair has caused intense interest in this section, where all the parties are well known.

The trio of gubernatorial candidates in Pennsylvania are young men. All of them are on the sunny side of forty-five, and each one has won a wide reputation for business sagacity, political honor and personal probity. Pattison, the Democratic candidate, is only thirty, and is the youngest man that ever ran for Governor in that State. It is a subject of general remark that three pure men never entered the field, as opponents, for political honors, than Beaver, Stewart and Pattison. What can be said of Beaver, the Regular Republican candidate, can be said of either of the others, that he is young, ardent,

Bates was yesterday night on the telephone question, beginning "Grave and Reverend Seignors," providing the Council express a desire to hear him orate and incidentally expound on the subject. —B. B. Eldredge, Esq., started this morning for the East, where he will visit friends for several weeks. He will meet Mrs. Eldredge, who has been East some three weeks, at the home of Rev. T. P. Sawin, of Medford, near Boston. —Mr. Haskins, president of the Wisconsin State Telephone company, has been requested to be present at the council meeting to-night, to state his objections to the existing resolution of the council on the telephone question. —In a very badly mixed article, suggestive of a variety of potatoes the Beloit Outlook says the Gazette man had a difficulty a day or two since and immediately switches off on another track in an asinine outburst. But we forgive you. —The Milwaukee Sunday Telegraph publishes the following: "Mrs. O. R. Smith, of Sparta, accompanied by her children, Willie and Mamie, started yesterday morning for a trip to her old home in Massachusetts. They will return in September. The late O. R. Smith was well known in newspaper circles in Janesville and Milwaukee."

—Another old resident of Rock county has passed away. Mr. A. P. Hoyer, who formerly resided in this country, died on the 16th inst., at his late residence in Woodstock, Ill. The remains will be brought here for interment, and will reach Janesville on the 12:40 train to-morrow, when they will be immediately taken to his old home. —Marshal Hogan has applied to the city for six special policemen for to-morrow. The public would be wise to see that everything about their houses is safe, and the doors locked before leaving them to witness the grand parade to-morrow. All circuses are followed by a gang of thieves who have no connection with the show, but are on hand whenever there is a crowd and a chance to plunder. —Judge Patton disposed of three cases this morning, brought before him by Marshal Hogan. The first, John Brown, who failed to give a good account of himself, and looked like a hanger-on of a circus, was given five days in jail. William Allen, another offender, was awarded four days, and Thomas Main, an old man who had indulged too freely, was assessed $1 and costs. —A good many in Janesville will be pleased to read the following, which is taken from the Sunday Telegraph: "Geo. B. Ely, who was a Janesville lawyer, and captain of Co. D, 2d Wisconsin Infantry, from April 22, 1860, to December 24, 1862, and who was appointed paymaster February 19, 1863, serving as such till the close of the war, is now a prosperous lawyer in New York City. A gentleman who pretended to know, says that his business is immense, requiring 12 clerks to assist in transaction."

—The itinerant musicians, who are going about the streets playing for hat receipts, discoursed selections from Stradella, in front of J. M. Bostwick's store this morning. When passing around the hat, the violinist poked it at Mr. Bostwick. "How much 'll you take for it. Don't deal in second hand goods anyhow." "Noder sello de hat. Si de gentelmanco pudor de neska, maka de musika, tres timpa." "Oh, contribution box is it? Well here's a duma with a hole in it—first time I ever had a chance to pass it at par."

—Miss Dell Williams, of this city, daughter of the late S. G. Williams, started this morning on her way to the Sandwich Islands, where she will remain three or four years, and probably longer. She goes with the Rev. and Mrs. Wallace, formerly of this city, as a member of their family, and probably while there will engage in teaching. Mr. Wallace, who at one time was rector of Trinity Church here, goes to the Sandwich Islands at the special invitation of the Episcopal bishop at Honolulu, and both he and Miss Williams will receive handsome salaries for their labors. The Sandwich Islands are about three thousand miles from San Francisco, and it will take eight days to make the trip from that city. The party will leave Chicago to-morrow, and while crossing the continent will stop at Salt Lake City and other places of interest on the route. —After Eight Long Years. C. C. Jacobs, 78 Folsom Street, Buffalo, writes that for eight long years he had tried known remedies to cure him piles, also had been treated by physicians without success, when he was ultimately cured by Thomas' Eucalyptic Oil. For sale by Palmer & Stevens and Shorer & Co.

The Big Show To-morrow. Don't be misled by false "dates" of other shows coming. Batcheller & Dora will be the only large show that will visit Janesville this season. A Gentleman from Baraboo. A tawney-bearded, tough-looking specimen of humanity asked the clerk of a small hotel last night: "You say you've been in Baraboo?" "Yes, I was there for a few days." "I was born there." "You were?" "You bet yer." "Proud of it?" "You hear me gently warble. A man living in that town for over thirty years got something to blow about, and I'm that man. Got any?" "Got any what?" "Gin. That's what we punish in Baraboo, 'an' don't you let it escape your jaws." He was directed to a saloon near by and said to the barkeeper. "Trot her out."

"Trot out what?" "Gin. I'm from Baraboo I am." "You are eh?" "Well I should blush to marmar." As he stroked his mustache after a five finger dose, he remarked on the way out— "Great town Baraboo, lived there right onto forty years."

"Hold on my friend, hadn't you better take a bathing suit with you?" "Guess not, I live in Baraboo." GOLDEN'S LIVER & LUNG BEER AND TONIC INVIGORATOR will cure indigestion, and perpetuate bodily vigor. Take no other. Of druggists. Batcheller & Dora's Great International Circus at Janesville Tuesday July 18. Batcheller and Dora's Circus this year is in reality the combination of six shows into one and the aggregation of all the leading novelties of circuses, menageries and museums, to be found in the world. This result was reached by untiring energy, liberal expenditure and indomitable perseverance in attaining the end sought after. Trusted agents scoured every part of the habitable globe during the past fall and winter and secured everything that was in any way an attractive or decided novelty. In the circus, larger, better and more novel performance is given than by any other show traveling, each performer being a bright particular star in his or her specialty. In the menagerie will be found the rarest animals of the forest, jungle and sea. In the museum, Batcheller and Dora present the greatest natural novelty of the age, Miss Christie, and with one body and two heads, called the "Two Headed Nightingale," who in herself is worth more than the price of admission to the entire show. She has puzzled the most learned doctors and scientists who have proclaimed her as the "Eighth Wonder of the World." Miss Christie, it should be borne in mind, is a part of the big show, and not a side show attraction. All of these attractions are given in the largest tent ever seen in this country, and the only one in which the peanut peddler, the lemonade vender and the song book hawker are allowed to practice their calling. A grand street pageant is given on the morning of the show, in which Batcheller and Dora's "Prize Beauty," the handsomest woman in the world, will appear, in connection with open doors of performing lions, tigers and snakes, gilded cars, handsome chariots, beautifully caparisoned horses, Jubilee singers, bands of music, etc.

Little Lulu's Funeral. The last rites were paid to the remains of Lulu Smith, at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. A large number of friends, who knew and admired the little one, and sympathized with the grief-stricken parents attended; and her playmates took a farewell look at the cold, white face of their departed companion. Floral gifts were plenty, and as the cortege moved away, there was not a dry eye among all the mourners. The Rev. Dr. Dodge delivered a salutary funeral sermon, which impressed all present with the ephemeral character of life. The remains were tenderly placed in their last resting place in Oak Hill cemetery.
